Home Training of Children.
To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: In your issue of the 22d you struck one blow which has been too long neglected by all newspapers and which we hope may have a good effect and cause others to follow your example. We allude to your editorial on the training of children. The state of society among children (if it can be called society) is truly alarming and has destroyed the whole social fabric upon which society is founded.
Obedience to parents or respect for old persons is entirely ignored and children are allowed to usurp the first place in every condition in which they can be placed. The first at table, the first to be helped and that of the cheapest parts, or a regular hater is raised and no person allowed to eat in peace or correct their insupportable conduct. There was a time when the parent commanded and the child obeyed instantly; but now they are hired, coaxed or petted into anything and everything the parent wants them to do. Break, destroy and tear up any thing that comes in their way regardless of value, and though often threatened are never corrected.
There is no peace, no quiet, no happiness to-day where there are any children, for instead of training them up in the admonition of the Lord, they are turned loose at home and abroad to work in the factory of the devil. I will and I want is their platform and they are elected by the votes of the parents to carry out their wills. "If you do again I will whip you" is the promise of parents, and they may do it a dozen times and go uncorrected unless the parent gets angry, and then the fur flies and the child is set an example of anger or revenge, which it will be sure to imitate. Parents spoil their children, won't teach them obedience (all really that they have to teach) while they are small or quite young, and in a few years they are masters of the situation and defy parents and teachers. Yes sir, obey your parents covers the whole field and you can't commence too early. Again, what sense or use is there in allowing children to raise a regular hater in the house by squalling, hallooing, stamping (even laughing) when older persons are talking, reading, or sometimes trying to rest from pain or sickness? Persons, to have any quiet or rest now where there are children, must divest themselves of all feeling, have no nerves and be deaf to the duties of life. Yes, sir, parents shirk the responsibility of their children and send them off to teachers, who are not allowed to correct them, but must make gentlemen and ladies out of them without the greatest essential, obedience. Hit them again. Keep on hammering upon their obedience heads until there is a reformation, or what we call refined society is at an end. It is said, it is awful to think of the rope given to children these days, and the parents will have to pay the penalty by seeing their children occupying the position described in your editorial.
